A DECADE WITH DICECCO

A DECADE WITH DICECCO [1995-2005]

AMY SWISHER [2001-04]

- THEN: UNI's all-time leading scorer with 1,851 points
Three-time all-conference first team selection
MVC all-freshman team member (2000-01)
Two-time MVC all-tournament team
- NOW: Pursuing a Master's in School Counseling at UNI

"The atmosphere in the West Gym was fun because the crowd was so close, and opponents hated playing there. It isn't your typical college arena, but it worked for us and we enjoyed it. Tony is a very loyal and giving man. He always was so willing to help us out no matter what it was we needed. I always remember him as having such a big heart and always wanting to help people. Also, Tony taught me about passion and what that means not only on the basketball floor but in life. I admire Tony because he truly loves what he does, and it is so important to love what you do. I always will be loyal to UNI hoops. It is funny - basketball really isn't a part of my life anymore. People are always asking me if I still play or if I coach, but I really don't have much to do with it."

KATIE MILLER [2000-03]

ALLISON (STARR) POHLMAN [1997-00]

- THEN: Set the school record for points (545) and rebounds (236) in a season, 2000
Named MVC Defensive Player of the Year, 2000
Three-time all-conference first team selection
- NOW: Pohlman is entering her sixth season as a UNI assistant coach. She resides in Cedar Falls, Iowa with husband, Kirk.

"Coaching at UNI has been one of the neatest experiences. Each university may claim that they have the greatest student athletes but I truly believe that I am surrounded by the best and this is why I love my job. The West Gym holds a number of memories for me. As a player, I remember the WSU and Missouri State weekend very vividly. Beating Wichita State in overtime and then beating top-ranked Missouri State my senior year and having the fans rush the floor will be a memory I cherish forever. In playing and working for Tony over the last 10 years I have learned that at UNI, it is not about a basketball team but more about being a family."

- THEN: Set the career (.824) and season (.868) free throw percentage
Three-time selection to MVC Scholar-Athlete team
1999-00 MVC Newcomer of the Year
2002-03 MVC all-conference selection
- NOW: Miller is a Div. I assistant women's basketball coach at Montana State University in Bozeman, Mont. She and David Falco, a UNI graduate, were to be married in October.

"When I think of UNI women's basketball, I think of all the success and wonderful moments that took place in the West Gym. The first and most solid lesson I learned from Tony D. was to become a student of the game. His greatest gift is the ability to teach the game, and teach it with detail. He is a wonderful teacher of fundamental breakdown. He also taught me there is more to basketball than learning the skills; it is the life lessons of punctuality, responsibility, respect, and appreciation that will stick with me forever!"

THE UNIVERSITY

THIS IS UNI

Building on a strong tradition of teacher education, the University of Northern Iowa has evolved into one of the finest comprehensive public universities in the country. UNI emphasizes excellence in undergraduate education and offers selected graduate programs at the master's, specialist's and doctoral levels.

UNI's heritage and philosophy place great value on providing a student-centered educational experience. The university offers a learning environment that is small enough to provide students with individualized attention, yet large enough to provide a variety of resources, including distinguished faculty. UNI's special combination of challenge and support is indeed a key ingredient of a "Students First" education.

Today, UNI offers more than 120 undergraduate majors. Outstanding academic programs, many of which are nationally-recognized for their excellence, have been established in the colleges of Business Administration, Education, Humanities and Fine Arts, Natural Sciences, and Social and Behavioral Sciences. In addition, UNI participates in the bachelor of liberal studies program offered by Iowa's Regent Universities and provides classes in centers around the state through the division of Continuing Education and Special Programs.

Recognized as the premier public undergraduate university in the state, UNI is experiencing an increasing demand for its high-quality programs. Enrollment at UNI was 12,513 students in the fall of 2005. Students come from every county in Iowa, and about 94 percent of UNI's undergraduate students are residents of Iowa upon enrollment.

The University of Northern Iowa was founded in 1876 as the Iowa State Normal School. It became Iowa State Teachers College in 1909. In 1961, the name was changed to State College of Iowa, and in 1967, the Iowa Legislature changed the status of the institution to that of a university under its present title.

Facts & Highlights

- U.S. News and World Report ranks UNI in the top two among public comprehensive universities in the Midwest.
- Kiplinger Personal Finance magazine places us in the top 50 in the nation for best value in public colleges.
- The Education Trust (www.edtrust.org) named UNI first among peer institutions nationally for overall high performance in graduation rates.
- UNI prides itself on smaller class sizes that enhance faculty-student interaction and personalized instruction. Thirty-two percent of classes have fewer than 20 students, and 83 percent have fewer than 40 students.
- UNI students are actively involved with more than 200 student organizations, including special interest clubs, sororities and fraternities, religious groups and academic groups.
- UNI is the alma mater of NFL and SuperBowl MVP Kurt Warner, as well as U.S. Sen. Charles Grassley.
- The UNI Wellness/Recreation Center, attached to the north side of the UNI-Dome, features a climbing wall, two pools, a running track, weight and fitness rooms, and courts for basketball, volleyball and racquetball.

DR. ROBERT KOOB,
PRESIDENT

Dr. Robert Koob is the eighth president of the University of Northern Iowa. He began his tenure in August 1995, and he is the first UNI graduate to return to his alma mater as President. ATHLETICS ADMINISTRATION

Rick Hartzell
Director of Athletics

Now in his seventh year as Director of Athletics at the University of Northern Iowa, Rick Hartzell has overseen unparalleled success and growth for the Panther athletics program. He was named the university's fourth full-time director of athletics since joining the Division I ranks on August 9, 1999.

Take some time to talk to Hartzell, and his passion for UNI athletics - and college athletics in general - comes across loud and clear. His love for the Panthers should be no surprise, as he was a UNI student-athlete during the mid-70s, and was able to come back home in 1999 to lead his alma mater's athletic program into the 21st century. He also believes strongly in the "student" part of the term student-athlete, and understands the importance of shaping well-rounded individuals for a life after competitive athletics are over.

The list of individual and team athletic successes since Hartzell took over at UNI is long and distinguished. The football team has claimed two conference titles the past four seasons, and the men's basketball team won its first-ever Missouri Valley Conference championship in 2004, with back-to-back NCAA tournament appearances - including the school's first-ever bid as an at-large team in 2005. UNI volleyball has won six of the past seven conference championships, and made three appearances in the NCAA tournament's Sweet 16 during that span. Panther wrestling crowned its first Division I national champion in 2000, and has placed as high as 11th in the national tournament. Track and field and cross country have claimed numerous conference titles, including the last six indoor men's crowns, and baseball made its first-ever NCAA tournament appearance in 2001, winning the rugged MVC crown. In fact, no less than 10 sports have seen teams or individuals in postseason action since Hartzell came back to the Cedar Valley.

In addition, the Panthers have finished in the upper half of the Missouri Valley Conference's all-sports standings each year under Hartzell's direction, including a best-ever finish of second in the 2000-01 campaign. Prior to his arrival, UNI had finished in the upper half of the league all-sports standings just once. UNI has also consistently finished in the top 90 in the annual Director's Cup standings since Hartzell's arrival, a ranking that measures a school's success in various sports in NCAA championships during that athletic year. In 2003-04, UNI finished 80th nationally, tops among schools in the Missouri Valley Conference.

The success on the field has been a direct result of Hartzell's hiring of quality head coaches during his tenure, many with Iowa and UNI ties. Mark Farley (football), Greg McDermott (men's basketball), Bobbi Petersen (volleyball), Brad Penrith (wrestling), Rick Heller (baseball), and Sachin Kirtane (women's tennis) are among the coaches that Hartzell has brought to UNI, with most garnering conference or regional championships and NCAA postseason appearances.

Off the field, UNI student-athletes have shined academically as well. UNI's overall student-athlete graduation rate is among the leaders in the Missouri Valley Conference and Gateway Football Conference. UNI's overall student-athlete cumulative grade point average has risen dramatically, to better than 3.0 after the spring 2004 semester for more than 400 student-athletes.

Hartzell has been a key figure involved in several facility upgrades, including the development of the McLeod Center, a new arena which broke ground last fall south of the UNI-Dome. When completed in 2006, it will house the men's and women's basketball programs, and volleyball and wrestling teams. In addition, Hartzell has overseen the effort to turn the UNI-Dome and future McLeod Center into an economic development site for the Cedar Valley, by garnering concerts and other special events to campus. Other key fund-raising initiatives include the construction of a new football locker room, weight room, and enhancements to Mark Messersmith Outdoor Track and Field Complex.

Another key effort spearheaded by Hartzell was UNI's radio and television agreements. Panther football and men's basketball have local television contracts for TV with KFXA (Fox 28), and for radio with KXEL (1540 AM), each of which was renewed for multiple years in 2004. UNI women's basketball and volleyball is currently carried by KWLO (1330 AM) radio, and is one of the only schools in the Midwest to have a regular-season home for volleyball.

Hartzell has helped guide the university through the NCAA's certification process, and overseen the addition of women's soccer to varsity status. A past president of the Gateway Football Conference athletic directors, he is currently vice-president of the Missouri Valley Conference administrators. He also serves as chair of the MVC sportsmanship committee, as well as serving as a member of the officiating committee and the centennial celebration committee. He recently received the All-American Football Foundation's General Robert Neyland Outstanding Athletic Director Award. In addition, Hartzell is a highly-respected NCAA Division I men's basketball official, having worked games for the ACC, Big Ten and Conference USA among other leagues, and officiated numerous NCAA tournament games.

Prior to being named at UNI, Hartzell had served as director of athletics at Bucknell since 1988, directing a Division I program consisting of 28 sports with 1-AA football. Prior to his appointment at Bucknell, he was Director of Athletics and Chairman of Physical Education and Recreation at the University of Maryland-Baltimore County from 1985-88, directing a 19-sport program which moved from Division II to Division I during his tenure.

Hartzell played football and baseball for the Panthers. He received his bachelor's degree in physical education and English from UNI in 1974, and his master's in educational administration in 1977. A native of Klemme, Iowa, he was a five-sport letterman at Klemme High School. Hartzell's personal interests include reading, fitness, auto racing and spending time with family and friends. He has two children -- Nate, 24, and Amanda, 22. He and Jill George, were married on September 3, 2005.

Why UNI

The University of Northern Iowa strives for excellence. Panthers excel not only in the classroom but on their athletic fields. The UNI athletic department encompasses 18 intercollegiate sports, eight men's programs and 10 women's programs.

The University fields baseball, football, wrestling, basketball, cross country, track and field and golf on the men's side while supporting basketball, cross country, track and field, golf, tennis, swimming, softball, soccer and volleyball for women.

All programs are members of the top division in the NCAA, except football is Division I-AA. Football is a member of the Gateway Conference while the other programs belong to the Missouri Valley Conference, except wrestling, which is independent.

As many college athletic programs across the country fall to financial pressures, UNI finds success with its lower budget. UNI is the smallest state school but has defeated its state rivals in recent competitions, including men's basketball, baseball and volleyball.

Academically, Panther student-athletes consistently surpass their counterparts as well. In the last four years the graduation rate of athletes has exceeded the overall student rate at UNI.

None of this would be possible without Panther supporters. Ask any coach or player and they will agree. UNI students and faculty and the Cedar Valley are an integral piece of Panther success. The UNI athletic department thanks the fans who stand for the purple and gold fight song.

UNI Fight Song

*Hail our Panthers, we are ever loyal,
Showing strength and unity
As we rise, we firmly stand behind you
Urge you on to victory, Rah! Rah! Rah!
As you lead us on to fame and honor
Fight! Fight! Fight! Will be our cry.
So give us a yell, Ho
The purple and gold,
Victory for UNI!*

CURT WOODIN

Assistant Athletic Director for Compliance

Woodin joined the UNI athletics staff in October of 2005. He is responsible for implementing and maintaining a compliance program for UNI's 400 student-athletes. He also will assist with UNI's student life initiatives.

Prior to UNI, he was the director of compliance at the University of Nebraska-Omaha and managed compliance issues for 400-plus student-athletes. Woodin spent time at the Kansas University Athletics Corporation in 2004 as the financial aid and eligibility specialist. He also gained experience in compliance and academic advising at Angelo State University (2001-2004) and Wayne State College (1999-2001).

Woodin has a Master of Science in Human Movement Sciences and Education, with a concentration in Sport and Leisure Commerce, from the University of Memphis (1999). He received his Bachelor's degree in Sport Management from Wayne State (1997).

Woodin was a student-athlete at Wayne State and was the captain of the men's basketball squad from 1994-1997.

JENNIFER SELL

Academic Advisor

Jennifer Sell is in her second year as Academic Advisor for UNI athletics. In her role, she helps with academic planning and registration for about 400 UNI student-athletes. In addition, she manages the department's Champs/Life Skills program.

Sell served as a freshman mentor and athletic academic advising assistant from 1995 through 1999 at Villanova University. She also has several years of experience as an elementary school teacher.

A native of Toledo, OH, she graduated cum laude in 1992 from Bowling Green State with a bachelor's degree in Education. She is married to Justin Sell, UNI's Associate Athletic Director. The couple has four children.

WHY UNI?

- Students describe UNI's professors as positive and upbeat, dedicated, innovative, personal, down to earth. UNI's faculty members include Fullbright Scholars, world-class teacher/researchers, best-selling authors and international business consultants.
- Small classes. UNI prides itself on small class sizes and a favorable faculty-to-student ratio. Lower division classes, which include general introductory courses and/or Liberal Arts Core courses specific to a major, have an even lower average of 27 students.
- One-on-one time with faculty -- after class, in research projects, extracurricular opportunities, or clinical or field projects.
- Student services to help insure academic success.
- The UNI Honors Program, which provides academically-motivated students with challenging classroom experiences, close ties with faculty, interactive discussion and social connections with other capable students.

Academic Advising Services

Academic Advising Services provides a variety of services to help students achieve their personal, career, and academic goals at UNI.

Professional and peer advisors help students:

- clarify life/educational goals
- utilize University resources
- select appropriate courses
- resolve academic difficulties
- interpret institutional academic requirements

The Reading/Learning Strategies Program provides many services for students, including free four-week courses in:

- Speed Reading
- Effective Study Strategies
- Study Reading

Center For Academic Achievement

The Center for Academic Achievement is a student service organization. Its goal is to provide all students with the assistance necessary to develop or polish the academic skills that are essential to the pursuit of a college degree. The services are threefold:

- reading
- writing
- mathematics

Educational Opportunity Program

The mission of the Educational Opportunity Program is to provide supportive services which are essential for the identification, recruitment, retention and graduation of minority and educationally disadvantaged students who traditionally have not had equal access to higher educational institutions. These services are provided to participants:

- academic & career counseling
- tutorial services
- financial aid counseling & advising
- personal counseling
- course selection & registration
- educational planning

UNI strives to offer all the advantages of a smaller college, but with the resources of a larger university. UNI prides itself on classes taught by experienced faculty (not teaching assistants), an easily navigated campus and small classes - as would a small college. But UNI also is proud of the fact that, unlike small colleges, it has approximately 800 faculty members with a wide range of experiences, views and philosophies.

Jed Smith
Strength and Conditioning
Coach

Jed C. Smith, the Explosive Strength Training Coach for the National Football League's Minnesota Vikings since February of 2004, joined UNI's staff as Strength and Conditioning Coach in June.

Smith has a wide and varied background in strength and conditioning training. In addition to his work with the Vikings, he also assisted the Minnesota Wild of the National Hockey League, the Minnesota Thunder of the United Soccer League and Penn State football in an effort to incorporate explosive strength training into their individual programs.

Beginning in June of 2002, he was an Exercise and Sports Science instructor at Dakota County Technical College in Rosemount, MN and also served as the Minnesota USA Weightlifting Regional Training Center director during the same time frame.

Prior to 2002, he had several coaching assignments at Rosemount High School beginning in 1996, including ninth grade boys basketball and wrestling. He served as Rosemount's strength training and conditioning coach for all sports from 1997-2002, was head boys tennis coach from 2000-2002, and coached the school's Olympic weight lifting from 1999-2002.

Smith earned his bachelor's degree in Social Science from Minnesota-Morris in 1994 and a second bachelor's degree in Psychology in 1995. He received his master's in Education with an emphasis in Strength and Conditioning from Hamline University in 2003.

The UNI Strength and Conditioning program is a blend of science, technology and one-on-one attention to each student-athlete.

Throughout the year, UNI athletes can spend more time working on strength and conditioning than any other aspect of their game. During the off-season, athletes work on strength improvement, speed, power, agility and conditioning. The in-season program is devoted to continuation of strength gains and performance-related conditioning.

Throughout an athlete's first year on campus, baseline measures of strength, speed, power, agility, flexibility and endurance are collected. Measure of body composition and weight also are recorded. With this information, goals are set for development and maintenance. Programs are established for each player.

The Human Performance Center

Quality field experiences and a strong training regimen are hallmarks of a UNI education. These standards and yet another exciting opportunity for community partnership lie at the heart of a new Human Performance Center which will be part of a facility adjoining the west side of the Wellness Recreation Center.

The HPC will enable students and faculty from UNI's School of Health, Physical Education and Leisure Services to collaborate with area medical professionals on a daily basis. The HPC will house several of the School's academic, research and public service programs, including the National Program for Playground Safety, Camp Adventure Youth Services, Global Health Corps and Youth Agency Administration.

The new facility also will have a Sports Medicine Center, including office and treatment spaces for physicians and therapists that will play a vital role in UNI's fastest-growing athletic training major. The HPC, in conjunction with the proposed UNI strength and conditioning facility which will be located at the north end of the UNI-Dome, also will serve UNI's intercollegiate athletics programs by creating classrooms, coaches' offices, team rooms, conference rooms, training facilities and locker rooms for player development activities, including strength conditioning, nutritional advising, and agility/speed activities.

The UNI sports medicine program features top-rate facilities and the outstanding services of sports and health care professionals.

The sports medicine program focuses on injury prevention. Staff members utilize Merac strength-testing devices, provide dietary analysis, measure physiological capacity and outline programs to improve an athlete's flexibility.

Athletic trainers and physicians work together to design rehabilitation programs for injured athletes. A wide variety of facilities and equipment, not only in the Sports Medicine Lab but in the Wellness and Recreation Center, including swimming pools, Merac equipment, Stairmasters and various exercise bikes, help athletes rehabilitate injuries and minimize the loss of fitness during recuperative time.

Student-Athlete Assistance Program (SAAP)

The University of Northern Iowa SAAP provides confidential, professional, and voluntary assistance and support to student-athletes regarding personal problems that are adversely affecting their academic or athletic performance. Educational programs also are offered to prevent problems and promote the general well being of student-athletes. The SAAP offers education and assistance regarding alcohol/drug problems, emotional problems, family difficulties, health/physical problems, financial and legal problems and eating disorders, among others.

To ensure the SAAP's effectiveness and protect students' rights, the following guidelines govern the program:

- The academic or athletics status of the student will not be jeopardized by the student seeking assistance.
- The program must protect the privacy of the student by employing strict confidentiality measures. Any details of communication between students and Core Committee members or Athletics Department personnel may not be disclosed to any source without the prior written consent of the student-athlete.
- The decision to use the program must be voluntary.
- Unless the student-athlete consents otherwise, the person making a referral to a source of assistance at a student-athlete's request may disclose only the following information: how the student was referred to SAAP, and the reason for the referral.

THE WEST GYM

THE WEST GYM THANKS UNI FANS

With the Iowa State Teacher's College female population dwarfing that of the males in the early 1920's, the future University of Northern Iowa put together a plan to bring men to the Cedar Falls campus. At the center of this scheme was President Homer Seerley's "Men's Gymnasium," a $250,000 recruiting tool for men looking for physical education degrees. The Men's Gymnasium, later dubbed Gymnasium Number One, and finally the West Gym, would become a landmark on the UNI campus and a building beloved to coaches, athletes and students alike.

The building opened in November of 1925 with a turkey dinner for the football team kicking off the festivities. After a brief address from President Seerley, the West Gym played host to a series of boxing and wrestling matches before a packed house.

"No longer will we have to jam our clothes into an overstuffed locker," noted a writer for the College Eye, the student newspaper. "No more will basketball fans have to stand on their tip-toes and crane their necks to watch a game."

With seating for more than 2,000 fans, the West Gym could accommodate many more fans than the older East Gym, and with greater comfort. The site hosted a variety of intercollegiate athletic events, most notably basketball and wrestling, and served as the headquarters of UNI's physical education program, as well. The building also hosted musical performances and public speaking programs at UNI, contributing wear and tear to the overused floor, which needed refinishing just four years after the gym opened.

The popularity of the West Gym early on was undeniable, especially as a site for wrestling. The building played host to the 1950 NCAA Wrestling Championships with the national title going to the Panthers.

Substantial improvements were commissioned in the mid-1960's, reflecting climbing enrollment and the popularity of the site. However, the improvements could not expand the seating capacity of the building, a problem that grew along with the growing student body. The seating problem at men's basketball games and other events was remedied in early 1976 with the opening of the spacious UNI-Dome.

The West Gym still is home to several UNI intercollegiate sports, but with the McLeod Center casting its shadow over the 80-year-old structure, its days of hosting competitive sports are coming to a close.

"The atmosphere our fans create in the West Gym is what makes the place so special," head women's basketball coach Tony Dicecco said. "One of my favorite moments in the West Gym was the win over Iowa State in 2002. We had a very large crowd and both sets of fans were going crazy throughout the game. It was my 100th win as the UNI women's basketball coach, and that kind of atmosphere is what I'll miss the most about the West Gym."

As the sun sets on the West Gym and a new day begins within the McLeod Center, the cozy little gymnasium will remain a fixture on the UNI campus and within the hearts of coaches, athletes and students for years to come.

THE MCLEOD CENTER

The McLeod Center

It is impossible to imagine the UNI campus without the UNI-Dome. It began merely as a dream. Today, this facility stands as visible evidence of the dedication of alumni and friends who have helped build the facilities UNI students and programs deserve.

Ground was broken for the new McLeod Center in the fall of 2004. It will be a facility specifically built for the Panther volleyball, basketball and wrestling programs. It will provide year-round training opportunities, and be attached to the south end of the UNI-Dome. Together with the Wellness and Recreation Center, it will complete a state-of-the-art athletic and recreation complex. General fixed bowl seating of 6,100 with capacity for 7,000 will accommodate sports, concerts, exhibitions and other community events.

The Center will provide a focal point for students, faculty, staff, alumni and the community to come together to cheer the Panthers, will bolster the image of the university as a premier performance center, and will ensure continued success and growth of UNI's student-athlete tradition.

COACHING STAFF

HEAD COACH TONY DICECCO

Tony DiCecco has delivered success for a decade as the head coach of the University of Northern Iowa women's basketball team. As the chancellor of the Missouri Valley Conference coaches, he was named MVC Coach of the Year last season. DiCecco guided the Panthers, who were picked to finish sixth in the MVC, to a record-breaking 20-win season and a second-place finish. Not only is he the winningest coach in the program's history, he has amassed 42 percent of the program's victories in only 33 percent of games played. In a decade with DiCecco, the UNI women's basketball program has gone above and beyond all expectations.

Dreams of conference championships and the program's first NCAA tournament appearance are now not just pipedreams but realistic goals. Now that DiCecco firmly has entrenched himself as the leader of the Panther women's basketball squad, it's hard to imagine anything but the positive attitude and winning ways that he has ingrained in his teams.

DiCecco, entering his 11th season as UNI's coach, has made his mark as the most successful women's basketball coach in University of Northern Iowa history. He has brought stability and a winning attitude to a program that had seen little of both prior to his arrival in the 1995-96 season.

The revival of the program under DiCecco in the 10 previous seasons has been nothing short of remarkable. Consider that he has transformed a conference doormat that had not enjoyed a winning season in 14 years into a perennial conference contender. In fact, the Panthers had posted just one winning season since joining the Division I ranks in 1982-83 prior to DiCecco taking over the reins, and since then, UNI has posted six winning seasons in 10 years, and the school's only two postseason tournament appearances in the WNIT. The 2004-05 Panthers broke numerous individuals and team records, despite losing the all-time leading scorer to graduation. They won more MVC games than any other UNI squad, going 13-5, and tallied the lowest scoring defense in the history of the program, holding opponents to 57.2 points on average. Alex Cook became the first UNI player to score 1,000 points and collect 1,000 rebounds and Cassie Hager broke the school record for blocks in a career (209), season (135) and game (8). The Panthers also completed their first ever sweep of intra-state rival Drake. DiCecco was forced to contend with many injuries and just only nine healthy players toward the end of the 2003-04 season. However, he was able to rally the troops to make a strong surge in the final five games, winning four. The Panthers' hot streak not only qualified them for the State Farm MVC Tournament, but also included a big upset over second-seeded Creighton to advance to the semifinals.

In 2002-03, DiCecco guided the Panthers to their second postseason appearance in two years and a third-place finish in the MVC. Despite injuries to several key members of the squad, UNI posted an 18-12 overall mark and 12-6 in the league while advancing to the semifinals of the MVC tournament. The Panthers also were one of the hottest teams in the nation down the stretch, winning 11 of 13 games from late January to early March to earn the WNIT bid.

Already the winningest women's basketball coach in UNI history, DiCecco also posted a landmark personal victory during the 2002-03 campaign, winning his 100th game as the head coach of the Panthers on Dec. 28, 2002, when UNI upset 24th-ranked Iowa State. He ended the 2003-04 season with a career record of 127-126. His 127 victories in nine years are more than the three previous Panther women's basketball coaches combined over the previous 15 years.

UNI had put together four straight winning seasons prior to a 14-16 campaign in 2001-02. UNI tied for fourth in the Missouri Valley Conference and posted victories over traditional powers Drake, Arkansas (on the road) and Missouri State.

The 2000-01 campaign saw the Panthers defeat a pair of ranked teams (#24 Illinois and #13 MSU) and shatter single-season and single-game attendance marks, in addition to capturing a fourth consecutive winning season.

In his first four years, DiCecco rejuvenated a struggling program that went 4-22 the season prior to his arrival to a 19-8 mark in 1998-99. Along the way, he improved the Panther victory total by at least three each season.

Perhaps his best coaching job was with a 1999-2000 squad that was besieged by injuries, yet still went 15-13 and upset Wichita State for the first MVC tournament victory in program history.

Five years ago, UNI opened league play with six straight victories while finishing in third place. The Panthers also reached a milestone when they qualified for the WNIT for the first time.

In addition to his success on the court, DiCecco has become a beloved figure respected and admired by his coaching peers, the UNI campus, and the entire state of Iowa. A popular and entertaining speaker, he spends countless hours traveling across the state promoting women's basketball and Panther athletics while speaking to boosters, schools and businesses.

The non-stop promotion of women's basketball in the Cedar Valley by DiCecco, his assistant coaches and players has helped shatter school attendance records three of the past five seasons. In 1998-99, the Panthers broke every attendance record possible, as they topped the 15,000 mark in total attendance. The Panthers recorded their first home sellout when they packed in 2,225 fans in the West Gym for a showdown against Iowa State. Tremendous ticket demand for the December 2000 battle vs. Iowa State forced the game to be moved across the street to the UNI-Dome, where 4,048 fans attended.

During DiCecco's tenure the team has added live radio and Internet broadcasts of all games on Home crowd support has grown from an average of 267 fans before his arrival to a high of 1,549 in 2000-01 and has averaged more than 1,000 fans per game during the past six seasons.

DiCecco's focus is not simply on-court X's and O's. He also is concerned with the development of his players as young women, and strives to create a close-knit atmosphere among his team.

"Our kids are very close. Our staff is very close," he said. "These four years are very important ones for development for college players. Mom and Dad aren't around a lot, and it's a very big time for growth and development of adult habits and family habits. We try to create a family-type atmosphere where our kids can feel comfortable in coming to us with problems or excitement."

At UNI, DiCecco has had 25 players named to the MVC Academic All-Conference teams.

"Our number one objective is to make sure that our girls graduate. We do everything in our power to make all UNI's resources available to our student-athletes," DiCecco said.

The program's assistant coaches work closely with the academic advising staff to monitor the academic progress of all players in the program. All incoming freshmen, any player with a grade point deemed too low, and any player who wants organized study time are able to work at organized study tables to seek help.

"We feel the adjustment from high school to college academics is something kids probably need help with," he explained. "We feel it's very beneficial for all our freshmen to come in and gain an understanding about study habits. We also feel that if you prove yourself in the classroom, study table is not mandatory. However, if the grade point falls below what we feel is acceptable, then we have study table to fall back on."

DiCecco is a 1971 graduate of Upper Iowa University in Fayette, Iowa, where he played collegiate baseball. He arrived at UNI from Creighton University, where he served as an assistant coach for six seasons. During his tenure at Creighton, the Lady Jays compiled a 122-52 record, including two regular-season Western Athletic Conference (WAC) championships, one WAC Tournament Championship and two NCAA tournament appearances. Nine players were named first team all-conference during his time with the Lady Jays.

Prior to his arrival at Creighton, DiCecco was the head girls' basketball coach at Montezuma High School in Montezuma, Iowa. He compiled a 306-69 record, including eight conference, 10 sectional and two regional championships. His teams made two Iowa State Tournament appearances.

In addition, he served as the head girls' softball coach from 1974-86 at Montezuma and coached at West Central High in Maynard, Iowa from 1971-73. His 1973 team finished third in the Iowa State Softball Tournament. He taught physical education and social studies at a variety of levels at both Montezuma and West Central.

DiCecco, a native of Niagara, N.Y., resides in Cedar Falls with his wife of 36 years, Kristi.

HEAD COACH TONY DICECCO

Tony DiCecco's Year-By-Year Summary at UNI

1995-96 (7-20, 6-12 MVC, 8th place)

DiCecco inherited a 4-22, last-place team and closes the season with a school-record six MVC wins. It's a difficult beginning, as UNI opens 1-12 and 2-16 before winning five of the final nine contests. UNI landed four players on the MVC All-Academic team.

1996-97 (10-16, 5-13 MVC, 9th place)

After opening 2-3, UNI picked up a 74-73 victory over in-state rival Iowa State to start a three-game winning streak and finish with a 5-3 non-conference record. UNI won just two of its final eight games and missed the MVC Tournament by two games, but the 10 wins tied for the most in a season since 1982-83, UNI's first in Division I. Kelley Westhoff is named all-MVC honorable mention after leading the league in assists, and she also is one of six Panthers named to the league's All-Academic team. Allison Starr is named to the MVC's All-Freshman Team.

1997-98 (14-13, 8-10 MVC, 7th place)

UNI got its first winning season since 1982-83 while winning a school-record eight conference contests. UNI opened the season 6-1 and made the conference tournament for the second time in three years. Four players were named to the MVC's All-Academic team, and sophomore Allison Starr is named first team all-MVC and all-Defensive. Freshman Nadine Brandt is named to the league's All-Freshman Team. UNI breaks attendance records with 6,793 fans overall and an average of 618 per game.

1998-99 (19-8, 12-6 MVC, 3rd place)

The Panthers improved their victory total under DiCecco by at least three for the third time in as many years, finishing 19-8 overall and 12-6 in the Missouri Valley Conference. Junior Allison Starr repeated as first team all-MVC and all-Defensive, while sophomore Barb Bennett became the first player in MVC history to be named all-MVC honorable mention despite not starting a game. DiCecco finishes second in the league's Coach of the Year voting, while Nikki Spettel is named all-Academic honorable mention. In a year that six teams from the MVC make the postseason, UNI's third-place finish was inexplicably overlooked by the committee. The Panthers broke every attendance record possible, including a sellout crowd of 2,225 that packed the West Gym for Iowa State. UNI's season average of 1,155 fans is nearly doubled the previous record of 618 fans per game set the previous year. KCNZ Radio broadcasted all 27 games live, while also adding the weekly Tony DiCecco Radio Show.

1999-2000 (15-13, 10-8 MVC, 5th place)

UNI picked up its first-ever MVC Tournament victory in a season that will be remembered for the play of Allison Starr and numerous injuries that plagued the Panthers. Starr closed her stellar career with her third consecutive all-MVC and all-Defensive selection and also is named MVC Defensive Player of the Year while setting new Panther records for points and rebounds in a season. Starr also was named to the league's All-Academic squad. Nikki Spettel joins Starr on the league's All-Defensive Team, while Katie Miller used a MVC record 53 consecutive free throws late in the season to get named MVC Newcomer of the Year. Injuries sidelined Nadine Brandt, Ky Petersen, Katie Sorrell and Abbi Schutte for the season, while starters Kary Dawson, Kara Opp and Spettel all missed portions of time, as well. Late season wins with just eight players in uniform over conference leaders Wichita State and MSU are among the year's highlights.

2000-01 (18-11, 12-6 MVC, 3rd place)

Wins over #24 Illinois and #13 Missouri State highlighted a season that included UNI's first postseason bid since joining the Division I ranks. UNI opened 5-3 against a schedule featuring six postseason teams from the previous year, including #24 Illinois on regional television that was the Panthers' first over a ranked team since 1976 and helped the Panthers garner votes in the Top 25 poll for the first time ever. With demand for UNI women's basketball tickets at an all-time high, the UNI-Iowa State game was moved across the street to the UNI-Dome, where a record 4,048 fans turned out. UNI won its league opener for the first time since 1986 en route to a 6-0 start in MVC play. A triangle-and-two defense helped limit national scoring champ Jackie Stiles to 39 points as UNI beat #13 Missouri State 99-80 in the West Gym, handing the Lady Bears their most lopsided loss of the year in a Final Four season. For the second straight year, UNI eliminated Wichita State in the first round of the MVC Tournament before falling in a rematch vs. Missouri State. The WNIT then invited UNI to its first postseason bid ever, where UNI fell at DePaul, 76-73 in overtime. Kary Dawson and Abbi Schutte were both named first team all-MVC, while Amy Swisher was picked to the All-Freshman Team. Nikki Spettel repeated her All-Defensive Team honor after amassing an amazing 47 charges during her final year. In addition, DiCecco becomes UNI's winningest coach ever and ends the year with 83 wins.

2001-02 (14-16, 9-9 MVC, 4th place)

The Panthers opened the 2001-02 campaign with an unheard of 13 consecutive games on the road. The Panthers knew they would be put to the test right from the start. The Panthers finished a week in San Juan, Puerto Rico, with a 1-2 record, defeating Central Florida and falling to Hampton and Nebraska. Heading into December, UNI posted its biggest wins of the season, 70-64 at Arkansas State and 66-63 at Arkansas. The Arkansas win marked just the 12th time in 127 games that a non-conference opponent defeated the Lady Razorbacks on their home floor. The Panthers jumped out to a good start in conference play, with a 4-1 mark. UNI posted its first ever win at Drake in an impressive 81-66 victory before an announced audience of over 4,000 fans at the Knapp Center and a regional TV audience on the Valley Game of the Week. UNI finished the first half of the conference season with a 6-3 mark. UNI would endure a six-game tailspin midway through the second half of the season, dropping it from a contender to battling for a good seed in the conference tournament. Sophomore Amy Swisher established herself as one of the top players in the Valley, earning first team all-league status after averaging 16.1 points and 7.5 rebounds.

2002-03 (18-12, 12-6 MVC, 3rd place)

Despite injuries prior to the start of the season to key players, the Panthers completed one of their most successful seasons in history. The Panthers posted a huge win in December, defeating #24 Iowa State, 65-58, for Tony DiCecco's 100th win as UNI's head coach. The Panthers also saw a pair of players, Katie Miller and Amy Swisher, top the 1,000 point barrier for their careers. Roughly halfway through the season, UNI found itself 7-7, and that's when the Panthers took off. UNI posted 11 wins over its next 13 games, including seven in a row at one point, including a 63-55 win over MVC regular-season co-champion Creighton. UNI also advanced to the semifinals of the MVC tournament for the second time, and earned its second WNIT bid in three years. Miller (17.6 ppg), Swisher (17.3 ppg) and Alex Cook (11.5 ppg, 12.0 rpg) each were named first team All-MVC for the season.

2003-04 (12-17, 7-11 MVC, 7th place)

The Panthers were picked fourth in the preseason with a full squad and only nine players would suit up for the final game. When it looked like UNI was down and out and with postseason hopes slipping away, the team never gave up. Not only did the Panthers make it to the MVC Tournament, they were the number seven seed and went on to upset number two Creighton. They finished the season with a record of 12-17, 7-11 in league play. Lone senior Amy Swisher became UNI's all-time leading scorer with 1,851 points. She broke the record against Creighton in front of the home crowd. The team traveled to Hawaii over Christmas and came away as the tournament champions, defeating Tennessee Tech and Fairfield. UNI won the last three games of the regular season, including knocking off Indiana State (60-58) and Illinois State (72-63) in the West Gym. Amy Swisher finished the year averaging 16.4 points and 7.8 rebound to be named first team all-conference. Alex Cook also earned first team honors and was a member of the all-defensive team with 13.9 points and 10.3 rebounds a game, despite breaking her hand with eight games remaining in the season. With three injuries to the team, Tara King, Jessie Biggs and Cassie Hager stepped up their play.

2004-05 (20-11, 13-5 MVC, T-2nd place)

DiCecco became the first UNI women's basketball coach ever to earn MVC Rawlings Coach of the Year honors, taking a squad that was picked to finish sixth in the MVC to its best-ever finish of second. The Panthers tallied their first 20-win season (since turning DI) and recorded their eighth consecutive trip to the MVC tournament. Alex Cook was named first team all-conference and was a member of the Valley's all-defensive team after becoming the first UNI player to score 1,000 points and knock down 1,000 rebounds. Cook owns the record for most career rebounds with 1,049. Cassie Hager was named first team all-conference, all-tournament and also was named to the all-defensive team. Hager broke the school record for blocked shots in a game (8), season (135) and career (209). Emily Berry ended her career ranked second on the all-time made three-pointer list with 200. Berry and Cook picked up second team all-academic honors. The Panther squad had its lowest scoring defense, allowing just 57.2 points per game, and swept intra-state rival Drake for the first time ever. UNI went 14-2 in the West Gym, losing just one conference home contest and winning its final six home stands.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Brad Nelson is in his sixth season as an assistant coach with the UNI women's basketball program. He was promoted to recruiting coordinator in 2001-02. He serves as the team's scheduling coordinator and works with the Panther post players.

Nelson served as assistant head coach at Cedar Falls High School from 1997-99, helping the team to back-to-back Iowa State Tournament semifinal appearances. His 1998-99 team set an Iowa state record by averaging 85.9 points and finished 23-3. That squad, which contained Panther players Amy Swisher, Emily Berry and Kim Hansen, was nationally ranked by USA Today for its first time in school history, as well. Nelson also coached another Panther freshman, Alex Cook, when she was at Cedar Falls High.

Prior to working at Cedar Falls High, Nelson served as an assistant coach at St. Ambrose University in 1995-96, where his team won regular-season and conference tournament championships while advancing to the NAIA Division II national quarterfinals.

While earning his Business Management degree from the University of Oregon, Nelson was head manager for the Ducks' men's basketball team from 1990-94. While in Eugene, he spent two years working under former Tennessee coach Jerry Green, and two years under 1981 National Coach of the Year Don Monson.

Nelson's wife, the former Jenny Sandvold, was a member of the UNI women's basketball coaching staff as a graduate assistant from 1995-97. The couple has one daughter, Bailey, identical twin boys Jacob and Brandon and gave birth to another boy, Jordan, on August 9th.

Kelley (Westhoff) Jacobs is entering her eighth season as part of the UNI coaching staff. After a year away from Panther basketball, Jacobs returned to the UNI bench in 2001 as a full-time assistant. She previously was a member of Tony DiCecco's staff as a graduate assistant from 1997-99 before her promotion to full-time status in the 1999-00 campaign.

Jacobs has used her business education to become a vital part of the Panther athletic department. She works with all facets of team travel, budget and financial issues, NCAA compliance, UNI's summer employment program, and coaches Panther point guards. She also aids in off-campus recruiting, scouting, fund-raising and public relations events in the community.

Jacobs remains one of the great players in UNI's history, holding many assist records. A 1997 graduate of UNI, she was a four-year letter winner and co-captained the team her junior and senior seasons. She set five school records and still holds marks for assists in a game (13), season (180) and career (475). She also owns the standard for assists per game in a season (7.20) and career (4.57). She led the conference in assists in her final Panther season and was ranked nationally.

She is a three-time all-academic selection in the Missouri Valley Conference. The Dubuque, Iowa native earned all-MVC honorable mention honors in 1996-97.

As a prep at Dubuque Wahlert High, Jacobs set school records for assists and steals and was selected to both the Iowa All-Star team and the Iowa Select Team her senior season. She ranked second in the state in assists her senior year at Wahlert and was named to all-conference and all-Area teams.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Allison (Starr) Pohlman is in her sixth season as a member of the Panthers' coaching staff. She is in charge of UNI's academic monitoring, summer camp operations, serves as facility liaison, coaches UNI's 2's and 3's, and coordinates film exchange. She also aids in scouting, fund-raising and public relations events in the community.

One of the best all-around players in MVC history, Pohlman competed from 1997-2000 as the centerpiece in the rejuvenation of UNI women's basketball under Tony DiCecco.

In 1997 as a freshman, she was named to the Missouri Valley Conference's All-Freshman team. Her final three years, she was named all-MVC first team and to the Valley's All-Defensive Team.

Pohlman arguably had the greatest single season in UNI history in 1999-00, leading the Panthers in steals and assists while setting school records for points and rebounds in a season. A runner-up to Jackie Stiles for the league's Player of the Year award, she was named the Valley's Defensive Player of the Year, as well. A mark of consistency, Pohlman reached double figures in the scoring column all but one game her senior year.

Pohlman capped her career with a school-record 96 consecutive starts, and also is third in UNI history with 1,463 points, fifth with 711 rebounds, second with 274 steals, seventh with 278 assists and as the school record holder for free throws made, free throws attempted, offensive rebounds, defensive rebounds, double-doubles and steals per game.

Perhaps her most memorable game was a 25-point, 22-rebound and seven-assist effort in a win against Wichita State, including the game-tying lay-up at the buzzer that sent it into overtime during her senior season.

Pohlman is a native of Wellsburg, Iowa, where she was a state champion long jumper and three-time conference MVP in basketball.

She resides in Cedar Falls and is married to Kirk Pohlman.

2005-06 PREVIEW

INTRODUCTION

"Defense Wins Championships" is not a cliché for nothing. Last season, the University of Northern Iowa women's basketball team allowed six fewer points per game than any other team in the Missouri Valley Conference (MVC) and came up with its highest finish in school history.

"Defense has to be the catalyst of what we do," head coach Tony DiCecco said. "Defense is the core of our basketball team. We took a tremendous amount of pride being the top defensive team in the league last season. It allowed us to win a lot of games."

Back to front, the Panthers will present relentless defense again. UNI returns two starters, including senior Cassie Hager (Perry, Iowa) who is on track to break the MVC career record for blocked shots. The Panthers also have nine other returning letter winners and four newcomers to help fill the void left by Alex Cook and Emily Berry.

"Losing those two players is a tremendous loss to our team. Their leadership on and off the court will be greatly missed," DiCecco said. "We now realize the value and importance of leadership. I think we will see players come forward who really paid attention to those two."

Cook broke the school record for career and season rebounds while becoming the first player in school history and the fourth in the MVC to score 1,000 points and tally 1,000 rebounds. Berry finished her playing career as the program's leader in three-point shots attempted (563) and she ranks second all-time in made treys (200).

Last season, UNI finished 20-11 overall, 13-5 in the MVC, and broke many individual and team records. The Panthers tied for second in the Valley, earning their eighth consecutive trip to the conference tournament. They lost to eventual tournament champion Illinois State in the second round. DiCecco was crowned Rawlings MVC Coach of the Year, the first time the program has received the award.

UNI was picked to finish sixth in the Valley but instantly soared to the top. The Panthers started conference play on a four-game win streak and they only lost one MVC game in the West Gym. They defeated Drake twice for the first time ever and took the Creighton Bluejays into overtime at the Omaha Civic Auditorium.

This season, UNI looks to remain a leading contender in the MVC while maintaining its post as the best defensive team. The Panthers will play their final season in the West Gym this year, as they plan to relocate to the new McLeod Center in 2006-07.

GUARDS

UNI has depth and experience in its perimeter players, despite losing four-year starter Berry at point guard. Junior Sarah Larsen (Kalona, Iowa) will take over at the top of the key. She saw action in 27 games last year, tallying 35 assists and averaging 2.7 points.

"Larsen's ability to pass the basketball is unbelievable. She is very in tune to what is happening on the floor," DiCecco said. "Sarah will be a much different styled point guard from what Emily was. She is really excited for the opportunity to take this team as its point guard."

Sarah Larsen

Junior Alicia Irons (Boone, Iowa) and red-shirt freshman Kristyn Ferris (Charles City, Iowa) will assist at point guard.

"Alicia has given us a great lift off the bench," DiCecco said. "She is a very good defender and her on ball defense gives us a great asset."

Newcomer Ferris was a four-sport letter winner in high school and set the school record for most points in a career (1,351).

"Kristyn spent a tremendous amount of time in the gym last summer and has improved as a point guard," DiCecco said. "She has the speed and quickness to defend and is a very good three-point shooter. There are going to be times when we have to rely on each and every one of those kids at point guard."

The depth of UNI's team will be in its backcourt. The Panthers have seven eligible players to fill its two and three spots, including one returning starter and one newcomer. Junior Jessie Biggs (Ottumwa, Iowa) averaged seven points last year and recorded 27 steals as a starter.

Biggs started all 31 games last year and was named to the MVC All-Freshmen team in 2004. She nailed 31 three-pointers last season and recorded 2.9 rebounds per game.

"We expect big things from Jessie. She has the ability to score and is a very good defender," DiCecco said. "A lot of times we will have her defend the best player on the opposing team."

Sophomore Traci Ollendieck (Cresco, Iowa) came off the bench last season, making 14 shots from behind the arc and giving the Panthers a boost offensively.

"We really like what Traci has the ability to do - she's so long," DiCecco said. "She defends really well and had a great summer in the gym. She is a good, solid three-point shooter and we have to have that in our game."

The remaining returning guards are senior Rachel Kautzky (Perry, Iowa) and junior Chelsey Matthias (Fairbank, Iowa) and sophomores Jackie Norton (White Bear Lake, Minn.) and Kelly Lund (New Brighton, Minn.).

"We need to get more perimeter production and we have the people in place. Each one of those people have different characteristics that they will bring," DiCecco said. "Rachel has speed and strength; Jackie is a heads up player; Kelly is a very good offensive player and Chelsey is a very good three-point shooter. They are able to come off the bench and help us win."

Rounding out the perimeter players is newcomer Sam Reiser (Waukon, Iowa).

"Samantha had a tremendous high school career. She has a good savvy for the game and her quickness gives her the ability to penetrate well," DiCecco said. "She was one of the top players in the state in steals per game. That will be a niche that Sam can bring to our program."

FORWARDS

It is not easy saying goodbye to arguably the best rebounder in the history of Panther women's hoops, Alex Cook. UNI's staff will look for two returners to step into her shoes. Taking on the task will be junior Tara King (Ottumwa, Iowa) and sophomore Megan Keefe (Clear Lake, Iowa).

"We feel very good about the two kids that will run that forward position. Tara and Megan will be very interchangeable," DiCecco said. "Both have the strength and the stamina to fit well into our system."

Tara King

King has played in every UNI game since joining the squad. She averaged 3.2 points and shot .868 percent from the free throw line last year.

"Tara has proven that she has the ability to score and to defend. She is a very gutsy, tough kid," DiCecco said. "If you are going to play both the inside and the outside, you have to be a tough kid. She brings that toughness to our basketball team."

Keefe shot .450 percent from the field, playing in 22 games last season.

"We have a great athlete in Megan Keefe," DiCecco said. "She literally can run forever and has the ability to knock down shots. It is important for us to be able to get production from the forward position."

CENTER

With all-America candidate Hager in the post position for UNI, opponents face a daunting task. They must figure out how to score around her and how to defend the 6-7 senior, not only down low but from behind the arc.

"Cassie really changes the game on the defensive end and also on the offensive end with her ability to shoot the three-point shot. She just brings a whole different dimension to our basketball team because of her size," DiCecco said. "She has really elevated her game with not only her ability to block shots but her ability to defend in the post. She has become a difficult match for a lot of teams."

Hager already has broken the UNI record for most blocks in the game (8), season (135) and career (209). She also is only 13 blocked shots away from breaking the MVC career record.

"That is such an accomplishment when you think of the great players that have gone through our league. Cassie has a knack for understanding players' release points," DiCecco said. "This allows her to contest a lot of shots."

Newcomer freshman Amanda Brodsack (Cedar Rapids, Iowa) will strengthen the post position.

Brodsack graduated from Prairie High School and was the captain of the 2005 state all-tournament team.

"Amanda is just so mobile and can get her shot off quick. Her mobility will help her in that post position significantly," DiCecco said. "She is a very good passer out of the post position."

SCHEDULE

UNI starts its schedule at Valparaiso and then travels to Boulder, Colo. for the Coors Classic tournament. It will play host team Colorado in the first round. The Panthers' first regular-season home game will be against Murray State Nov. 30 before going on the road to Illinois-Chicago and IPFW.

UNI plays Iowa State in a historical game at the Wells Fargo Arena in Des Moines on Dec. 17. The Panthers were chosen to play in the first women's basketball game in the arena.

"We cannot be more excited to be in that game," DiCecco. "The Wells Fargo Arena will be an incredible sports venue for the state of Iowa."

The Panthers finish their non-conference schedule with Iowa in the UNI-Dome Dec. 21.

"We are very excited about our non-conference schedule. We need to prepare for the level of competition in our league," DiCecco said. "We like the mix in our schedule."

As always, the MVC race will be tight heading down the stretch to the conference tournament. For the first time, though, all 10 teams will be included in the State Farm MVC Tournament.

"I think it is a tribute to each individual player, coach and institution that they get the opportunity to play in the MVC tournament. It is a very prestigious event," DiCecco said. "Everybody should be a part of it and now that opportunity is available to everyone."

DiCecco feels there will be quite a few teams playing for the top spots.

"Indiana State has every one coming back and came within an eyelash of winning the conference tournament. I think you really have to give the nod to Indiana State with what they have returning. From there, I think it's going to be an interesting league," DiCecco said. "Missouri State will always fight for a championship and Drake has nearly everyone coming back. Over the last few years, Creighton has always been in the mix. I think you will see a lot of teams fight for the top of the Valley this season."

2004-05 REVIEW

2004-05 YEAR IN REVIEW

The 2004-05 University of Northern Iowa women's basketball season will go down in the books as the best in the program's history. Thanks to the tremendous leadership of two dedicated seniors, the Panthers capped off their best regular season in the Missouri Valley Conference with a 13-5 record and a second-place finish. No other team at UNI has won 13 conference games or finished as high as second in league play. Its 20-11 record last year marked the first time since joining Division I in 1982-83 that a team has reached 20 wins.

"It has to be one of the most enjoyable seasons that I have ever had in my 34 years of coaching, not only from a win-loss record, but because of the opportunity to deal with the people that I dealt with, the commitment that our kids made, and how well our team got along," head UNI women's basketball coach Tony DiCecco said. "There is no possible way we would have had a year like this if those things had not fallen into place."

DiCecco was honored as the Rawlings Missouri Valley Conference Coach of the Year for his superior efforts in guiding the Panthers through their remarkable season. But he is the first to admit that he had strong support from his assistant coaches, players, and two very special seniors. Both Emily Berry and Alex Cook left their mark on the UNI women's basketball program by reaching huge milestones in their final year.

Berry spent the year directing traffic from her point guard position and firing long-range three-point baskets. For the third consecutive year, the Cedar Falls native led the team in three-point shots attempted and made three-pointers. She finished her career as the program's leader in three-point shots attempted (563) and ranks second all-time in made three-pointers (200). All of those three-point baskets add up to a lot of points and against Drake (Feb. 24), Berry became the 14th player in UNI history to join the prestigious 1,000 Point Club. She also was named to the MVC Scholar Athlete second team.

Cook continued to provide the Panthers with a steady diet of double-doubles, finishing with 44 in her collegiate career. Against Wyoming, (Nov. 28), the Decorah, Iowa native became UNI's career leading rebounder, surpassing Tami Schebler's mark of 788 boards. Her biggest basketball accomplishment came against Creighton (Feb. 26) when she became the first UNI player to score 1,000 points and collect 1,000 rebounds, and just the fourth to do so in MVC history. She finished her career with 1,180 points and 1,049 rebounds, ranking her eighth all-time in UNI scoring and third all-time in MVC rebounding. She was named first team all-conference, a member of the Valley all-defensive team and received second team all-academic honors.

Another player that added to the team's success was 6-7 center Cassie Hager. A consistent performer offensively and defensively, the junior center from Perry, Iowa averaged 13.3 points and 4.3 blocked shots. She earned MVC Player of the Week honors twice (Feb. 27 and March 5), was named first team all-conference, and earned a spot on the Valley defensive team. As a junior, she rewrote the UNI record books for blocks in a game (8), blocks in a season (135), and blocks in a career (209). She ranks third all-time in MVC history for career blocked shots, holds the league record for blocks in a season, and finished the year ranked third in the nation for blocked shots per game.

After posting a 6-5 record in their non-conference schedule, the Panthers came sprinting out of the starting blocks, stringing together four consecutive wins to open up league play. Knowing how important it was to protect their home court, the Panthers went 11-2 in games played in the West Gym, losing just one conference home game and winning their final six home contests. UNI finished with an 11-point scoring margin advantage over visitors in the 13 home games, averaging 64.9 points while holding opponents to just 53.9 points.

The strength of this team proved to be its defensive pressure. It finished with the best scoring defense in the history of the program, allowing just 57.2 points per game, and was the best defensive team in the Valley, holding league opponents to 56.9 points. One of the main reasons why it was so successful defensively was its ability to block shots. The Panthers finished sixth nationally in team blocked shots and set the school record for team blocked shots in a season with 200. While each of the Panthers' 13 conference wins were equally important, the 68-54 win against Drake at the Knapp Center (Jan. 30) marked only the second time UNI was victorious over the Bulldogs in Des Moines. The Panthers completed their first ever sweep over their intra-state rival with a 66-48 rout at home on Feb. 24.

UNI closed out the season strong, winning nine of its last 12 games and 15 of its last 21. The Panthers finished in a three-way tie for second place in the Valley, qualifying them for the State Farm Missouri Valley Conference Tournament for the 10th time in the history of the program. After defeating Evansville (March 10) 58-47 the Panthers advanced to the semifinals of the tournament for the second consecutive season, their fifth trip in the last six years. UNI lost to the host school and eventual tournament champion, Illinois State (58-48), marking the end of UNI's record-breaking season.

"I think the most important thing I will take from this season is how well our chemistry was and the leadership we had to make that happen," DiCecco said. "I don't think I'll take wins and losses but I'll take the ability of a team to come together for one reason. And that was to be the best basketball team they could be."

MISSOURI VALLEY CONFERENCE

MISSOURI VALLEY CONFERENCE

The spectacular rise of the Missouri Valley Conference continued in 2004-05, and all signs point toward an ongoing resurgence for the nation's second-oldest NCAA Division I conference.

The Missouri Valley Conference continues to lead by example as one of college athletics' most progressive conferences. One year shy of its centennial celebration, the Missouri Valley Conference emphasizes the importance of the student-athlete and is aggressive in its approach to provide opportunities for its member institutions.

Since its inception in 1907, the Missouri Valley Conference has been regarded as a leader by its peers among today's collegiate athletic conferences.

While the Valley took center stage by hosting the NCAA Final Four in St. Louis in 2005, the overall performance of league teams in virtually every sport continues to raise the national profile of the conference.

Most noteworthy in 2004-05 was the success in the sport of men's basketball. For an amazing seventh consecutive season, the Valley earned multiple berths in the NCAA Tournament. And for only the third time in league history - and the first since 1999 - three conference teams qualified for the Big Dance. Two others qualified for the NIT, marking the first time in Valley history that five men's basketball teams qualified for post-season play.

Southern Illinois won the regular-season championship for a fourth consecutive season and likewise qualified as an at-large NCAA tournament entry for an unprecedented fourth straight time. Creighton won the Valley tournament title and automatic qualification into the NCAA's, the eighth-straight trip to the post-season and the sixth NCAA appearance during that span for the Bluejays. But perhaps the most significant accomplishment for the MVC in men's basketball came when UNI finished the regular season in a tie for third place, lost to Missouri State (SMS became Missouri State University in August 2005) in the first round of the Valley tournament and still gained an at-large NCAA berth. It marked the first time in league history that a team losing in the quarterfinals of the Valley tournament was selected to play in the NCAA championships in men's basketball.

There were plenty of other milestones for the Valley in the athletic arena in 2004-05. In women's basketball, Illinois State hosted the State Farm MVC Tournament at Redbird Arena and won the championship as a No. 8 seed, marking the first time any team seeded fifth or lower has won the tournament in women's basketball. Missouri State became the second straight Valley team to win the WNIT, following Creighton in 2004.

The 2004 cross country season marked the first in a series of three-straight NCAA Championships hosted by Indiana State. The 2005 and 2006 national meets will also take place in Terre Haute. A Valley school (Indiana State-2002; UNI-2003) will serve as host for the NCAA Cross Country Championships for five straight years.

In another historic first, three league men's soccer teams advanced to the third round of the NCAA Soccer Championship. Affiliate members SMU and Tulsa joined Creighton among the final 16 teams remaining in the field. Tulsa's run ended in the quarterfinals after the Golden Hurricane beat SMU in the third round.

Led by Wichita State's regular-season and tournament championship and first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance, four Valley volleyball schools won 20 or more matches for the first time since 1996. The Shockers swept their first-round opponent (Nevada) in the NCAA Tournament.

Illinois State became the first Valley school to sweep men's and women's golf titles in the same season since Tulsa swept three-straight titles in 1994-95-96. The Redbirds, with Wichita State, gave the Valley two teams in the NCAA Men's Golf Regional for the first time in league history.

For the first time ever, three Valley softball teams qualified for the NCAA Tournament, including Southern Illinois, Creighton and Wichita State.

In baseball, Creighton won its first-ever baseball title, edging Wichita State in the regular-season standings. Wichita State won the tournament and the league had two (Creighton and Wichita State) NCAA Tournament teams for the third time in four years.

In 2004-05, Wichita State captured a second consecutive MVC All-Sports Trophy behind a balanced performance by its programs, with nine of its sports programs finishing regular season play in first or second place. It was the Shockers' 11th overall All-Sports Trophy, the highest number for any Valley school.

Based in St. Louis since 1985, the league is assertive in its approach to hosting NCAA basketball championship events, operating a revenue-producing in-house television network, bidding out the right to play host to sport championships and landing title sponsorships for those events.

The success of the Valley television package is one of the great stories in the league, in terms of the clearance of the men's basketball tournament title game on national broadcast television, the excellent national and regional coverage for basketball and other sports, and the effective sale of advertising content to a more than 25 companies. The MVC Television Network has blossomed into a revenue-generating vehicle and the Valley's most visible marketing tool.

During the tenure of Doug Elgin, the Valley's ninth commissioner, the Valley has been aggressive in hosting NCAA events in St. Louis. That role came to a spectacular climax in April 2005 as the conference collaborated with local partners to stage the Final Four at the Edward Jones Dome.

This continuing involvement of the MVC in hosting NCAA events represents one of the most concentrated stretches of host opportunities for any university or conference in the 67-year history of the national championship tournament. The 2005 host opportunity was the sixth in eight years for the MVC in St. Louis. The league had previously hosted men's regionals in 1998, 1999, and in 2004; a men's first/second round event in 2002 and the Women's Final Four in 2001. The Valley will host a men's basketball regional in 2007 and a Women's Final Four in 2009. Additionally, Creighton and the Valley will co-host a men's basketball first and second round in 2008 in Omaha.

And while the Missouri Valley Conference has been progressive in pursuing NCAA events, it has continued to be a national leader in the athletic arena. The oldest Division I athletic conference west of the Mississippi River, the Valley has had numerous successes in its storied history, which includes a myriad of accomplishments since the turn of the century.

The 2000-01 basketball season was highlighted by a Women's Final Four appearance by Missouri State, while in 2001-02, the league produced four Sweet 16 teams,

MISSOURI VALLEY CONFERENCE

Southern Illinois (men's basketball), UNI (volleyball), Southern Methodist (men's soccer), and Drake (women's basketball). A College World Series appearance by the MSU baseball team highlighted the 2002-03 season; while Southern Illinois' men's basketball team was one win shy of a perfect 18-0 conference season in 2003-04, losing at UNI on the final day of the regular season.

Starting in 1995-96, the Conference broke new ground by allowing league members to bid for hosting rights for select team sport championships. By establishing uniform host criteria, the Conference is able to assist a host institution in a season-long promotional campaign and provide an avenue where hosts can acquire sponsors and achieve a profit for the event.

The 2003-04 season was a landmark season for the conference as State Farm Insurance and the league came to terms on an agreement that would provide State Farm with title sponsorship of 17 of the league's 18 championships (ConAgra Foods retained the baseball tournament title sponsorship). The conference's progressive marketing and in-house television package has helped open doors to regional and national sponsors outside of the realm of title sponsorships, as the league's men's basketball tournament sponsorship revenues were at an all-time high in 2005.

Meanwhile, the league has been progressive in other areas, as it has taken its merchandise program in-house, while offering e-commerce solutions for league apparel and for tickets to the men's basketball championship.

The seeds for this vision were planted by eight administrators representing five institutions, who met at the Midland Hotel in Kansas City, Mo., on Jan. 12, 1907. The five schools which formed the Missouri Valley Intercollegiate Athletic Association were Washington University of St. Louis, and the state universities of Iowa, Kansas, Missouri and Nebraska. Two months after the initial meeting, two more schools -- Drake University and Iowa State College -- were admitted.

In the fall of 1907, basketball became the first competitive sport. Today, the Missouri Valley Conference sponsors the following sports: baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country and track & field (indoor and outdoor), men's and women's golf, men's and women's soccer, softball, women's swimming and diving, men's and women's tennis, and women's volleyball.

This season, the league will conduct its 95th outdoor track and field championship, its 88th tennis championship, its 52nd baseball tournament, and its 68th golf championship for the men. Those programs, plus other current sponsored sports of cross country (47 years), indoor track (39), soccer (15) and swimming and diving (12), have helped solidify the Missouri Valley Conference as one of the most respected conferences nationally.

Athletic accomplishments on the men's athletics side include four national basketball championships, 17 trips to the NCAA Final Four, and a 1989 national baseball championship. In 2001, Missouri State added to the Valley women's accomplishments, as the Lady Bears advanced to the Women's Basketball Final Four in St. Louis. Creighton (2004) and MSU (2005) have claimed national championships (WNIT) in women's basketball, while MSU also has a 1992 NCAA Women's Final Four appearance, and Creighton (2003) and Drake (1999) have made semifinal trips to the WNIT postseason tournament.

Indeed, the inclusion of women's programs under the Valley banner -- the nation's second-oldest collegiate athletic conference -- has provided a boost. The Gateway Collegiate Athletic Conference -- which began in 1982 -- merged with the Missouri Valley Conference and was unveiled as part of the new conference on July 1, 1992.

And while the inclusion of women's sports under a comprehensive athletic umbrella is a recent development in the league's storied 98-year history, over the years, Valley student-athletes and coaches have become household names during the league's illustrious history, both during their collegiate careers and, for some, professional careers.

In fact, the Valley began honoring that tradition in the summer of 1997, when the Conference began its athletics Hall of Fame. Hersey Hawkins of Bradley, Larry Bird of Indiana State, Wes Unseld of Louisville, Coach Henry Iba of Oklahoma State, Dave Stallworth of Wichita State, Ed Macauley of Saint Louis, and Oscar Robertson of Cincinnati were members of the initial induction class. Currently, some 30 former players, coaches and alums dot the league's Hall of Fame.

Men's basketball, perhaps, has the league's most storied tradition with the likes of Hall of Famers Bird and Robertson, but the Valley has also produced national-caliber student-athletes in its other sponsored sports. In 2001, Missouri State's Jackie Stiles became the first Valley woman to earn the Honda Award, given to the nation's top female collegiate student-athlete. In the sport of track and field, Indiana State's Holli Hyche captured seven national sprint titles in the 1990s, and Southern Illinois' Darrin Plab won back-to-back NCAA outdoor high jump titles in 1991 and 1992. At the 2002 NCAA indoor meet, Illinois State's Christian Goy won the mile run, becoming the 17th male national champion in league history. In the fall of 1997, Creighton's Johnny Torres was named the collegiate male soccer player of the year for a second-straight year. While league member Wichita State has produced two national collegiate players of the year in baseball: Joe Carter (1981) and Darren Dreifort (1993).

From its early beginning to its current standing on the map of college athletics, The Valley will always continue to be proactive in its approach.

League members include Bradley University, Creighton University, Drake University, the University of Evansville, Illinois State University, Indiana State University, Missouri State University, the University of Northern Iowa, Southern Illinois University, and Wichita State University. Affiliate men's soccer members include Eastern Illinois University, Vanderbilt University, and Western Kentucky University.

A DECADE WITH DICECCO [1995-2005]

KELLEY (WESTHOFF) JACOBS [1994-97]

THEN: Set every UNI assist record - career (475), season (180) and game (13)

Named to the MVC Scholar-Athlete team three times
MVC All-Conference selection (1996-97) after leading the league in assists

NOW: Jacobs is entering her eighth year on the Panthers' coaching staff. She resides in Cedar Falls, Iowa with husband, Ryan.

"Coaching at my alma mater is truly a rewarding experience. It has been exciting to watch the growth of the program. It makes it that much more special to be where we are today, because I know where we had to climb out of. The West Gym has such a fun atmosphere when you fill it up with loyal Panther fans. I'm not sure there is anything that gets our players more excited than when they run out of the locker room and come onto the court to see the stands full and everyone cheering for them. It has been a wonderful home for our team and we will definitely miss its mystique. What I have learned from Tony D. is that the game of basketball is about a lot more than x's and o's. It is not just about coaching the game but about teaching the fundamentals. Take pride in being a good teacher!"

ALEX COOK [2002-05]

NIKKI (SPETTEL) HELM [1998-01]

THEN: Set the record for career charges taken (80), charges taken in a season (47) and charges taken in a game (55)

Two-time member of the MVC all-defensive team
Named to the 1998-99 MVC Scholar Athlete Team

NOW: Helm is a sixth grade teacher in Albia, Iowa. She is the head women's basketball coach and the freshman volleyball coach. She was married last summer to Darren Helm.

"I truly enjoyed my time at UNI. I made lasting friendships with teammates and coaches and know there is always a support system for me if I need it. Being a coach myself now, I realize the struggle that it can sometimes be for players and coaches to be on the same page. I appreciate my former coaches so much more now, especially my college coaches. I can't imagine what it's like dealing with all of the outside stuff that goes along with coaching college athletes. It's hard enough with high school athletes. My favorite memory from playing would have to be when we beat MSU in the West Gym my senior year. We handed them a 19-point loss in a year where they went to the final four. It was definitely a high point for us and gave us momentum going into the conference tournament. I miss playing and make it to as many games as I can. What can I say, I will always bleed purple and gold."

THEN: First UNI women's basketball player to secure 1,000 points and 1,000 rebounds

Set career record for rebounds, 1,049
Two-time MVC all-defensive team selection
Three-time all-MVC selection

NOW: Cook teacher Physical Education at Holmes Junior High in Cedar Falls, Iowa.

"Tony DiCecco and the West gym are two great things that have happened to UNI. The West gym was a great place to play because everyone always hated to come. It is a place where all fans could be involved and be heard. Tony D. is a man that will give anything to help anyone; he is a man that wants to teach you how the world works and what you can contribute. He has taught me to do my best because life is too short to do something half-heartedly. I am a better person because of Tony D. and the West Gym. My experiences with both have helped me understand what it is to be a Panther and to be proud."
